

For Immediate Release

June 9, 2015

Contact: Phil Robbins 708-758-1221 x10 philr@glenwoodiegolf.com

Award-winning Glenwoodie Golf Course Innovative in Attracting Golfers
*Nine & Dine, weekday packages, Junior Leagues, outings keep public course robust.

Glenwood, IL - When Jack Nicklaus told CNN he'd like a golf game "that is not going to cost me an arm and a leg", he didn't want to compromise on course quality for lower price. Phil Robbins, PGA Professional, has the perfect spot for Nicklaus - Glenwoodie Golf Course.

"Glenwoodie opened in 1926 and was designed by Harry Collis, a renowned golf course architect," said Robbins. "It was a private country club but is now a public course, beautifully maintained by the Village of Glenwood. Our 16th hole is consistently voted Toughest Hole in Chicago by Chicagoland Golf."

The management is also innovative and aggressive in attracting golfers. Each weekday until 2 pm, a foursome plays 18 holes with carts for just $100 and Senior Leagues play weekdays for reduced rates. "Our golf outing packages are very competitive, starting at just $38 per golfer, which includes green fees, lunch and carts. We know we do a really nice job because organizations immediately book their next-year date with us after an outing."

To encourage youth interest, Glenwoodie participates in The First Tee of Greater Chicago and the PGA Junior League. "Golf can be too solitary of a sport for kids, and being able to play together on teams around the region is a big plus."

The FORE Ladies Only Clinic, held every Saturday during the season, can be the perfect starting point before joining the Monday and Thursday morning Ladies Leagues, or a place to improve swing or putting flaws.

"We're especially proud of our Nine & Dine program on the last Friday of each month," says Robbins. "Reservations can be made for 2, 4 or more players. We play nine holes beginning at 6:00 pm - scramble, alternate shot or par 3 shootout - then enjoy a delicious meal and music at our Clubhouse. Each month is themed; French, Spanish, Greek and Fall Harvest are planned. It's a perfect date night for couples, or a Night Out for guys or gals."

"Glenwoodie is a jewel," smiles Robbins. "Jack Nicklaus is welcome here anytime. He'll find just what he's looking for."

#####