

July 7, 2015

Contact: Meagan Bruce
Cell: (708) 639-0688

"Support Veterans Vegas Night Out" Charity Event

Glenwood, IL- The Keeling Foundation will host a special charity event Friday, July 24th, doors open at 6:00 pm, events begin at 7:00 pm. The event entitled, "Support Veterans Vegas Night Out" will be held at Glenwood Oaks restaurant located at 106 N. Main Street, Glenwood, IL.

VetTech.US, operated by The Keeling Family Foundation, is a unique program which trains our military veterans for IT certification and careers. The program also helps local communities through collecting and recycling old electronics. The Keeling Family Foundation has been a recognized 501(c)(3) non-profit organization for over 29 years. Proceeds from the charity event will provide free job training and employment for veterans.

Mark LeRose, General Manager of Glenwood Oaks, predicts this will be most unique charity event ever held at Glenwood Oaks restaurant. "This event is well-coordinated. There's going to be gambling, food, drinks and prizes all for a good cause. We are pleased to sponsor VetTech.Us."

Foundation chairman, Marvin T. Keeling, also anticipates a great outcome since the number of sponsors have exceeded Keeling's expectations. Major sponsors include Hog Wild, Dave & Busters, Northlake, Sam's Club, Thornton American Legion, Walmart, and many more. Keeling continues, "I chose to host my event at Glenwood Oaks because I've known the Jarosky family since the 70's. Great family, great business, great food!"

Entertainment for the event will include traditional Vegas games, such as Blackjack, Craps, Poker, and Russian Roulette. In addition, a silent auction and 50/50 raffle will take place. Grand prizes that evening will include a seven-night getaway in Mexico, a luxury stay at The Abby in Geneva, a flat screen television and much more.

Ticket donations to enter the event are $25 a person when purchased in advance, or $50 per person at the door. Locations to purchase your tickets in advance are the Glenwood Oaks restaurant or online at VetTech.Us. Entry includes appetizers, two drinks, and free parking. Cash bar and special menu will also be available during event.

The charity organizers have a Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/VetTech.US> and word-of-mouth is being spread throughout the neighboring communities of Glenwood. For more information, contact Marvin T. Keeling at Marvin@Keeling.com, or call (708) 533-5464.

###